JANUARY - APRIL 2026

Wigan♥
Council

WELCOME

Hello and welcome to Wigan Council's What's on Guide for Spring 2026!

As winter gives way to spring, it's the perfect time to discover something new and inspiring across our borough.

Discover Wigan's Voice at Wigan Museum, showcasing contemporary reflections on Wigan's heritage, culture, and landscape through new and reimagined works. See The Drumcroon Collection Part II at The Turnpike Gallery, curated by young selectors. Delve into local history at the Archives: Wigan & Leigh History Talk, join friendly book discussions at local libraries, and relax amid nature on Woodland Walks at Haigh Hall.

There's so much to enjoy, explore, and take part in - we're sure we'll see you soon!

The Engine Room Trencherfield Mill, Wigan, WN3 4BL

Forging the Future is an ambitious 3-year programme that will position Wigan as a leading regional production hub. The Engine Room, managed by Thickskin Theatre, is the first in a series of spaces the programme aims to aminate, a brand-new venue in Wigan's industrial heartland. The Engine Room is a place to see great shows, enjoy good company and be inspired.

A mix of theatre, dance, music and art, full of creative people doing what they do best. Entertaining you! Located in the historic Trencherfield Mill, The Engine Room is breathing new life into an extraordinary space. Come and be a part of it.

The Drumcroom Collection Part II:

The Turnpike Gallery
Until 17 April 2026
Tue – Fri 10am – 4pm
Sat 10am – 2pm
Free

Young people from our Creative Community have selected additional artworks from the collection and co-curated a new version of the exhibition. They have chosen 15 artworks including paintings, sculpture, textiles and craft objects from across the world.

The display comprises over 50 diverse works and celebrates the innovative spirit of Wigan's beloved Drumcroom Education Art Centre (1980 – 2011) which gained national acclaim for its work in visual arts education.

The Little Things That Stick by Craig Atherton

Craig has taken inspiration from the Drumcroom Art Collection and from his own memories of growing up in and around Leigh, to create a wonderful installation on the outside of Leigh Library. The vibrant display of 36 window vinyls inspired the cover of this edition of the What's On Guide. Visit the Turnpike Centre to view the whole collection!
